Alterations, extension and sympathetic refurbishment of a Cotswold country house. Externally the project included a new Swimming Pool, glazed pergola, outdoor Kitchen and extensive landscaping. Internally a new glazed Entrance, Kitchen with retractable glazed lantern, Utility/ Pantry, Dining Hall and Cinema room completed the project.

A new country house set in historic parkland. The new house, a replacement dwelling, in the traditional 'Cotswold Georgian' style benefits from classically proportioned and modern open plan living spaces. Through our involvement from inception to completion, we ensured the complete design intention was implemented successfully from the spatial arrangement down to the smallest interior details.

In addition to large high value projects, we also undertake more modest alterations, extensions and refurbishments to Cotswold Cottages and more modern properties locally to our practice. Our typical contract values range from £250,000.00 to £5m+ and no matter the scale of the project we apply the same high standard of professional service.

As Architectural Interior Designers we can also provide technical details and advice on all your interior requirements. We prepare design and construction details in-house for Kitchens, Pantries and Utilities, Bathrooms and Dressing Rooms, staircases, internal and external joinery. We also provide comprehensive project management services.

ABOUT US

Verity & Beverley was originally founded in 1871 when the company won the competition to design and oversee the construction of The Criterion Theatre in London's Piccadilly Circus. Thereafter the company has been responsible for some of the country's most iconic and historical architecture, including the Pavilion at Lord's Cricket Ground and many of the Art Deco Theatres throughout the country.

Since the 1980's our practice has focused on delivering high end residential projects throughout the Cotswolds and surrounding counties, and we are immensely proud of our heritage, project portfolio and ongoing project legacy.

Whether you require a bespoke new house, alterations and/or extensions to an existing house, a full renovation or refurbishment we would be delighted to be considered as Architects for your project.
